

June 26, 2023

Page 2 of 2

Nonetheless, the Division was able to find the following felony case associated with your file:

In Martin County:

1. ■-CF-■

In St. Lucie County:

2. ■-CF-■

As it relates to case ■-CF-■, our records indicate that you were adjudicated guilty of a felony offense and sentenced to 9 months of jail followed by 4 years of probation on June 8, 2016. You were also ordered to pay $1,365.00 in fines, fees, and costs and an additional $30,110.56 in restitution. You subsequently were found to have violated your probation and were re-sentenced to 2 years of community control followed by 5 years of probation on December 22, 2020. You were also ordered to pay an additional $300.00 in fines, fees, and costs. You subsequently were found to have violated your probation a second time and were re-sentenced to 15 months of prison on April 7, 2021. You were also ordered to pay an additional $400.00 in fines, fees, and costs. Our records indicate that you have paid $2,480.83 towards your outstanding fines, fees, and costs (including restitution) stemming from case ■-CF-■. Accordingly, the Division finds that you owe $29,644.73 stemming from your felony conviction in case ■-CF-■.

As it relates to case ■-CF-■, our records indicate that you were not adjudicated guilty of a felony offense and your voting eligibility was not, therefore, impacted. § 98.0751(1), Fla. Stat. (stating that the loss of voting rights occurs upon the conviction of a felony offense).

The Division of Elections finds that the amount of legal financial obligations related to your felony convictions in the above-referenced cases that must be paid to make you eligible to vote is $29,644.73. See Article VI, Fla. Const. § 98.0751(1), (2)(a)5.b., Fla. Stat. (articulating restoration of voting rights upon completion of a felony sentence including the payment of all fines, fees, costs, and restitution). We conclude, based upon the information we located, that you are ineligible to vote.

Nothing in this opinion should be construed as evaluating your voting eligibility with respect to any other felony convictions you may have, given the incomplete information you have provided to the Division. If there are additional cases or convictions you would like the Division to examine, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for submitting your request.

Sincerely,

Florida Division of Elections